

US Army Corps
of Engineers

Mr. Larry Cozine
U.S. Army Corps of Engineers
Great Lakes and Ohio River Division
Louisville District
Engineering Division - Design Branch Chief 502-315-6240

Industry Day

One Corps Serving the Army and the Nation

US Army Corps
of Engineers

Facility Descriptions

Operational Readiness Training Complex (ORTC):

Army Transformation BCT Complex simplified to support Army Reserve/National Guard Annual Field Training exercises
(Temporary 21-30 day occupation periods)

- Barracks: Open bays and shared latrines, Multi-story
- OQ: Barracks with semi-private accommodations
- Dining Facility: Standard design
- TEMF/CoF: Simplified versions of the Standard Designs
- Bn and Brigade HQ: Simplified versions of the Standards

No ORTC's are scheduled for construction during FY08-09

US Army Corps
of Engineers

Facility Descriptions

Army Reserve Program Training Complex:

Training and Readiness of Army Reserve forces

- Training Center
 - Office Building, multiple stories and sizes
- Vehicle Maintenance Facilities
 - Single story repair garage with office spaces
- Unheated (gear & Equipment) Storage Building
- Organizational Parking
 - Vehicle Storage Areas

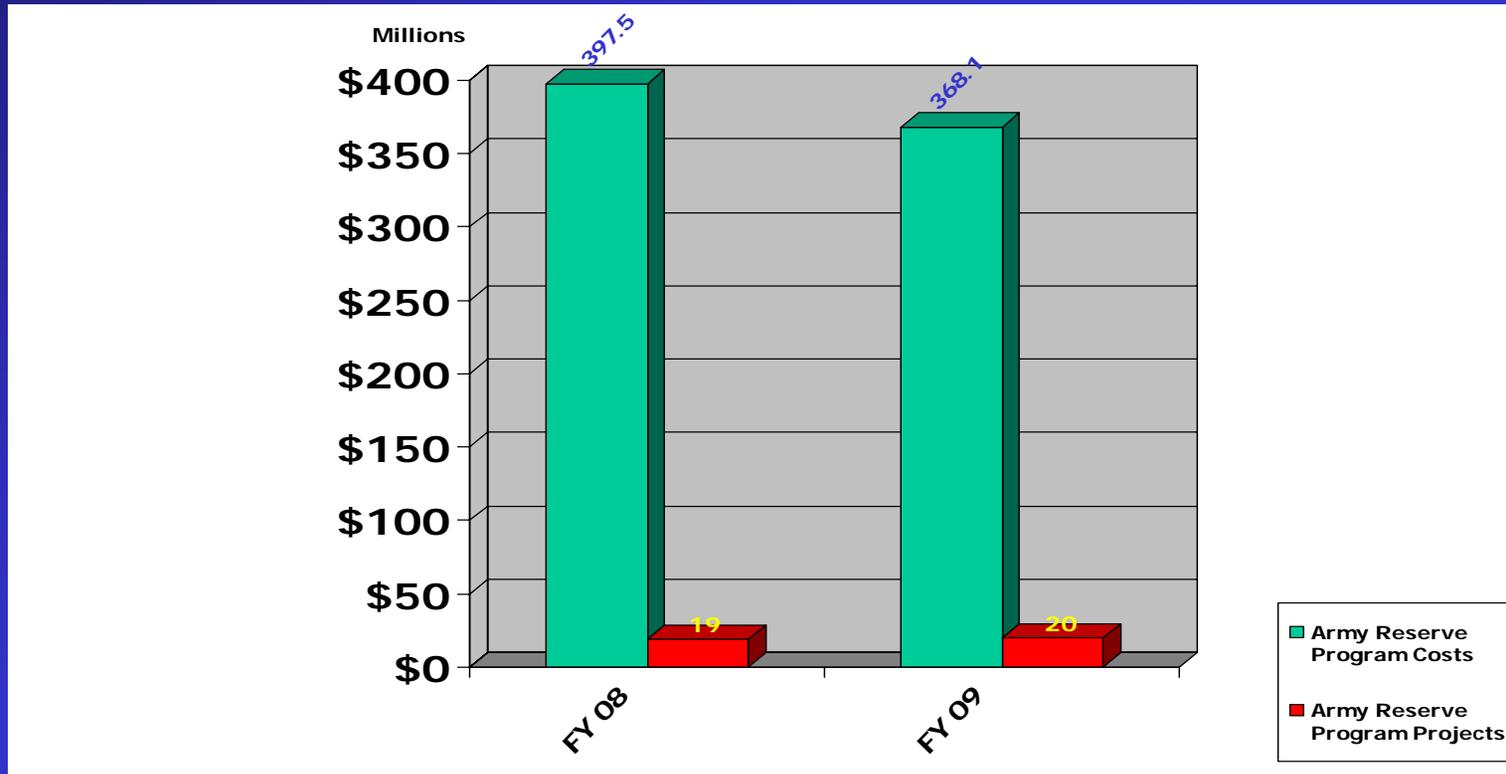

Most complexes are located in municipal areas

One Corps Serving the Army and the Nation

US Army Corps
of Engineers

Program/Cost/Quantity Break-down

Total FY 08-09 Program = 37 Projects / $765.6 M

One Corps Serving the Army and the Nation

US Army Corps
of Engineers

Region/Cost/Facility Break-down

